BUFFALO BILLS CELEBRATE 50 YEARS

On October 28, 1959 the Buffalo Bills were granted the seventh franchise by the American Football League with Ralph Wilson, Jr. as the owner. This year, the Bills and Mr. Wilson will be celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the storied organization and the league in which they started.

The original eight AFL teams who started play in 1960 were the Buffalo Bills, Denver Broncos, Kansas City Chiefs (played as the Dallas Texans), New England Patriots (played as the Boston Patriots), New York Jets (played as the Titans of New York), Oakland Raiders, San Diego Chargers (played as the Los Angeles Chargers) and the Tennessee Titans (played as the Houston Oilers).

The National Football League will highlight the 50th Anniversary during "Legacy Games" throughout the 2009 season. During one home game and one road game the eight original AFL teams will meet head-to-head while wearing their chosen historic uniforms. The Legacy series kicks off on the first Monday night of the season with a special double-header as the Bills travel to New England in the first game while the Raiders host the Chargers in the nightcap. Additionally, the Bills will be featured in the Pro Football Hall of Fame Game against the Titans the night following the August 8th Induction ceremonies of Ralph Wilson, Jr. and Bruce Smith into the Hall.

The Bills organization is planning to celebrate the 50th Anniversary in a number of ways this season and the best way for fans to stay up with all of the action is to visit the special section of the Bills website that has been established. Simply go to the Bills website at www.buffalobills.com and click on "50th Season" for an interactive experience commemorating this special year in Buffalo Bills history.

Earlier this spring Bills fans voted for a 50th Anniversary All-Time Team, which was announced the first day of the NFL Draft this past April. Five players who were part of the Bills 1964 and '65 Championship teams were selected as were 15 members of the Bills four consecutive Super Bowl squads. The entire team and head coach are listed on a separate page on the Bills website that can be viewed by visiting the "50th Anniversary" tab on the home page of the Bills website and then by clicking on "50th All-Time Team."

Gone Green

- For the third consecutive year, the Buffalo Bills Media Relations Department has “Gone Green” with the media guide, which means it contains fewer pages than in recent years.
- We have done so in an attempt to accomplish a couple of objectives. The first is to be environmentally friendly and use less paper. The second is to utilize today's technology to the fullest extent and direct media members to the Bills media website at www.buffalobills.com/media. Realizing that information in the guide needs to be constantly updated, our media website allows us to have the latest information at our fingertips in terms of player bios, team and individual records and statistical figures, just to mention a few. More info on page 20.
- We have also added more in-depth information to areas such as the Records Section and other often-used information. The website is also a great resource for newspaper clips and historical data as well. We strongly encourage all media members to utilize the site. We also encourage all media members to notify us of elements you would like to see on the site as we are striving to make our site your first, and best, resource when covering the Bills.

IN MEMORY OF...

The Buffalo Bills lost four members of our family in 2009. The special memories of these four outstanding individuals will live with us forever and the contributions they made to the Bills organization will long be remembered.

LINDA BOGDAN, who passed away on April 28th, served as the team's Vice President/Assistant Director of College and Pro Scouting. During her 22 years with the Bills, she remained the only female scout in the NFL. Her hard work and expertise resulted in the Bills drafting WR Jerry Butler in 1979 and LB Carlton Bailey in 1988, most notably, along with many additional players. No one ever said an unkind word about Linda and she was truly beloved by everyone in the Bills organization, especially by her father, Ralph Wilson.

JACK KEMP, who passed away on May 2nd, was one of the most prolific players of the American Football League. The Bills quarterback led the team to the AFL Championship in 1964 and '65 and was named the league's MVP in both of those years. He will always be remembered for his leadership abilities and his toughness. Those two qualities played a major role in his post-football career as he served as a U.S. Congressman for 18 years and received the Republican Party's nomination for Vice President in 1996 in addition to his many political credentials.

BOB RYAN, who passed away on March 11th, served on the Bills scouting staff for over 30 years following an illustrious high school and college coaching career in the Northwest. Bob's insightful knowledge of West Coast players served as a tremendous asset over the years in Bills Draft preparations and he was a valuable resource on Draft Day in decisions on various players.

LOU SABAN, who passed away on March 29th, served as the Bills head coach for two stints. The first was from 1962-65 as he led the Bills to the American Football League titles in 1964 and '65. His second tenure began in 1972 by taking over a 1-12-1 team and he had the Bills back in the playoffs by 1974. The colorful coach was an inspiring motivator who was loved by his players and he remained in the position through mid-October of the 1976 season.

► 50TH YEAR WITH THE BILLS

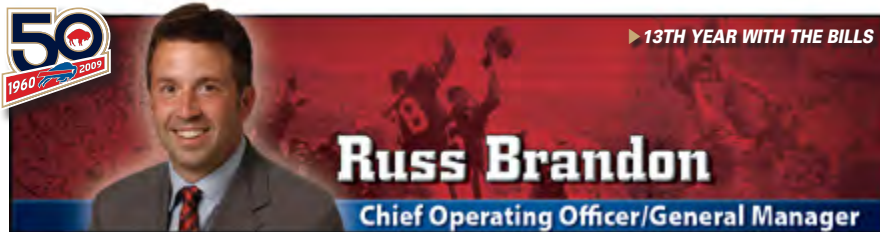

Ralph Wilson, Jr.

President

► 13TH YEAR WITH THE BILLS

Russ Brandon

Chief Operating Officer/General Manager

With the responsibility of overseeing the day-to-day operations of the Bills organization, Russ Brandon was appointed Chief Operating Officer of the Buffalo Bills on January 8, 2008 with the addition of "General Manager" formally added to his title this past spring.

The Bills made, according to many experts, the biggest free agent signing this year with the addition of WR Terrell Owens to give the Bills one of the strongest receiving corps in the league. Under Brandon's watchful eye, the team also acquired key offensive additions with QB Ryan Fitzpatrick, C Geoff Hangartner and RB Dominic Rhodes, while free agent CB Drayton Florence was signed to bolster the Bills secondary.

Brandon and the Bills were also active early on in the 2008 free agency signing period by inking LB Kawika Mitchell, fresh off his Super Bowl victory with the Giants, and DL Spencer Johnson. To further strengthen the defense, Brandon was instrumental in acquiring all-pro DT Marcus Stroud in a pivotal trade with Jacksonville in the same time period.

While the 2008 draft marked the first one with Brandon at the helm, he has been a part of the Bills draft/free agent formula for a number of years with his involvement in the football operations process that included spearheading the selection and signing of free agents in the post-draft hours. Rookie-of-the-Year candidate CB Leodis McKelvin in '08 along with 2009 selections DE Aaron Maybin and offensive linemen Eric Wood and Andy Levitre in the first and second rounds resulted in many of the draft experts giving the Bills very high marks for their past two drafts.

Brandon served as the team's Executive Vice President of Business Operations the previous two years, overseeing the team's vision and execution of all business-related endeavors. He developed a strong base of strategic business and community partners as well as programs that have helped the team connect with its fans and partners. Also during that time, he had his staff established the Buffalo Toronto Series, a program that is an additional anchor in regionalizing the franchise.

From January of 1999 through January 2006, Brandon served as the team's Vice President of Business Development and Marketing. He and his staff have been credited with the development of the team as a regional franchise and forming strategic alliances with key business partners.

Brandon is a member of the NFL Best Practices Committee, assisting in the development of new league business strategies. Brandon's success in the sports business field has been recognized with numerous awards and in 2001 he was the recipient of Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal's Forty under 40 award.

In 1999, Brandon and his staff finalized the foundation of the regionalization plan by relocating Buffalo Bills Training Camp to St. John Fisher College in Pittsford, New York. The new layout and location provided the perfect blend of fan interaction and training accommodations. While at St. John Fisher College, the Bills have continually ranked among the NFL's best in training camp attendance.

Brandon joined the Bills in November of 1997 as Executive Director of Business Development and Marketing after earning a World Series ring as a member of the Florida Marlins front office. He began his sports business career as a member of the Rochester Red Wings (Triple A affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles) serving in many capacities, including assistant general manager.

The native of East Syracuse, New York, is also involved in regional and league initiatives. He is a member of the Board of Trustees at St. John Fisher College and serves on the board at the Buffalo Niagara Partnership. He and his wife Amy are involved in many charitable endeavors and had the honor to serve as Co-Chairs of the Hunter's Hope Gala this past October.

Brandon was a four-year letterman in baseball and football at St. John Fisher College and graduated with a degree in communications. He was inducted into his alma mater's Sports Hall of Fame in 2004. He and Amy have three children, sons RJ and Jack, and daughter, Grace. They reside in Williamsville, New York.

Dick Jaaron

Head Coach

Dick Jaaron's coaching career traveled full-circle when he was named the Buffalo Bills' 14th head coach on January 23, 2006. Jaaron began his coaching career as a Bills defensive assistant coach in 1985 and 21 years later he returned to Western New York to take over the team that gave him his first professional coaching job.

Jaaron will enter his fourth season as the Buffalo Bills head coach in 2009 – the longest tenure for a Bills head coach since Marv Levy coached the team for 12 seasons from 1986-97.

Jaaron ranks fifth all-time in Bills history with 21 career wins. His record with Buffalo is 21-27 and overall career record is 57-76 (.429). He earned his 50th career victory against the Dolphins in week 14 of the 2007 campaign.

Since his arrival in 2006, the Bills have been among the most disciplined in the team's history. In 2008, the Bills set a team record for the fewest penalties in a 16-game season with 71 and the fewest penalty yards in a 16-game season with 538.

The Bills were also secure with the football as they allowed just 21 turnovers to tie a team record (1990, 1998) and lost just seven fumbles which also ties a team record for a 16-game season (1998).

Jaaron has over two decades of NFL coaching experience. In his first stint as an NFL head coach, Jaaron spent five seasons as the head coach for the Chicago Bears and he was the 2001 Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year. That season, he led the Bears to a 13-3 record and their first NFC Central Division Championship since 1990. Jaaron joined George Halas and Mike Ditka as the only coaches in franchise history to reach 13 wins in a single season and the sixth Bears coach to string together a six-game winning streak within a season.

The 2001 Bears were known for their clutch play as they accumulated five second half come-from-behind victories and an 8-0 record in games decided by seven points or less. The Bears defense ranked first in the NFL in points allowed and second in rushing yards allowed.

Prior to his stint in Chicago, Jaaron served as the defensive coordinator for the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars from 1995-98, helping lead the team to three playoff appearances in four years, including the AFC Championship game in 1996 and the AFC Central Division title in 1998.

Jaaron coached the defensive backs for the Green Bay Packers from 1986-94.

Jaaron was drafted in the fourth round of the 1973 NFL draft by the Detroit Lions and also by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1973 Major League Baseball draft in June. He spent his first five NFL seasons with Detroit. He started at free safety as a rookie and was a Pro Bowl selection in 1974 after leading the NFC in punt return average (16.8). He played the final four seasons of his

ELLIS IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2008, Chris participated in the Toyota Rookie Club appearing at numerous community events throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, Chris and all first year players did one community appearance as a group. The Toyota Rookie Club events included a visit to Women's and Children's Hospital of Buffalo to paint ceiling tiles for the rooms and hallways and host a pizza party, a visit to the Lincoln M. Alexander Secondary School in Mississauga, Ontario to discuss the importance of sport and activity with the student-athletes and to present the football team with $3,000 in new equipment for the school's football program, and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center in November 2008 where the Rookie Club Members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 300 children and families. In addition to serving food, the players introduced themselves to the community members during a brief ceremony, sat and ate with them, and signed autographs.

The final Rookie Club appearance of 2008 took place at the Annual Bills Holiday Party. The Rookie Club and Bills veterans hosted nearly 100 children from a number of different local community organizations. The Annual Holiday Party gives children from the organizations an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with the Bills players, Bills cheerleaders, Billy Buffalo, and Santa Claus. The children received a holiday dinner, pictures and autographs and gifts from a wish list that they had previously submitted.

In addition to his work with the Rookie Club, Chris also taught interactive football drills to women who participated in Football 101 presented by BlueCross BlueShield of Western New York. Over 150 women participated in this unique event which was held in the Buffalo Bills Fieldhouse, with all proceeds benefiting the WNY Women's Fund.

Lee is one of the most active Buffalo Bills in the community as the spokesperson and volunteer for a number of different community programs. Evans was named the 2007 Buffalo Bills Walter Payton Man of the Year, as voted on by selected members of the Western New York community. The prestigious award began in 1970 and honors players who demonstrate outstanding balance in their lives between civic and professional responsibilities.

Evans has been involved in community service since his rookie year when as a member of the Rookie Club. He visited Women and Children's Hospital, attended a field trip with Buffalo Public School children to the Historical Society, served Thanksgiving Dinner at Friends of the Night People and handed out presents at the Annual Holiday Party for Children.

Evans has served as spokesperson for the 2006, 2007, and 2008 "What Moves U" Challenge with the Buffalo Public Schools. As spokesperson, he was featured in the "What Moves U" PSA, appears on the cover of all of the "What Moves U" Materials sent to the Buffalo Public Schools and additional schools throughout Western New York. Lee annually attends the What Moves U Fieldhouse Party where he talks with the students about the importance of staying active and living a healthy lifestyle. The program is done in partnership with the American Heart Association and BlueCross BlueShield of WNY and stresses the importance for children to get active for at least 60 minutes of every day and strive to be physically fit.

Evans proactively asked to get involved in the "Team Up 4 MS" program. He was featured in a public service announcement to increase awareness of MS in our region and encourage fans to donate to the "Team Up 4 MS" program. FINE IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2008, Derek participated in the Toyota Rookie Club appearing at numerous community events throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, Derek and all first year players did one community appearance as a group. The Toyota Rookie Club events included a visit to Women's and Children's Hospital of Buffalo to paint ceiling tiles for the rooms and hallways and host a pizza party, a visit to the Lincoln M. Alexander Secondary School in Mississauga, Ontario to discuss the importance of sport and activity with the student-athletes and to present the football team with $3,000 in new equipment for the school's football program, and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center in November 2008 where the Rookie Club Members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 300 children and families. In addition to serving food, the players introduced themselves to the community members during a brief ceremony, sat and ate with them, and signed autographs.

The final Rookie Club appearance of 2008 took place at the Annual Bills Holiday Party. The Rookie Club and Bills veterans hosted nearly 100 children from a number of different local community organizations. The Annual Holiday Party gives children from the organizations an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with the Bills players, Bills cheerleaders, Billy Buffalo, and Santa Claus. The children received a holiday dinner, pictures and autographs and gifts from a wish list that they had previously submitted.

Along with Demetrius Bell and Reggie Corner, Derek also appeared at the Fern Avenue Public School in Toronto to run a Mini Recharge Clinic. The Bills Mini-ReCharge clinic is part of the NFL Play 60 program designed to educate and motivate youth to be healthy and physically active for at least 60 minutes a day.

JOHNSON IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2008, Steve participated in the Toyota Rookie Club appearing at numerous community events throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, Steve and all first year players did one community appearance as a group. The Toyota Rookie Club events included a visit to Women's and Children's Hospital of Buffalo to paint ceiling tiles for the rooms and hallways and host a pizza party, a visit to the Lincoln M. Alexander Secondary School in Mississauga, Ontario to discuss the importance of sport and activity with the student-athletes and to present the football team with $3,000 in new equipment for the school's football program, and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center in November 2008 where the Rookie Club Members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 300 children and families. In addition to serving food, the players introduced themselves to the community members during a brief ceremony, sat and ate with them, and signed autographs.

The final Rookie Club appearance of 2008 took place at the Annual Bills Holiday Party. The Rookie Club and Bills veterans hosted nearly 100 children from a number of different local community organizations. The Annual Holiday Party gives children from the organizations an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with the Bills players, Bills cheerleaders, Billy Buffalo, and Santa Claus. The children received a holiday dinner, pictures and autographs and gifts from a wish list that they had previously submitted.

LYNCH IN THE COMMUNITY

In July 2009, Lynch hosted his third annual FAMILY FIRST free football clinic at his old high school, Oakland Tech.

In June 2009, Lynch along with Terrence McGee served as lead financial sponsors for Buffalo's Gus Macker 3-on-3 tournament. Proceeds from the tournament benefit the Buffalo PAC and Kids Escaping Drugs campaign.

Along with Ryan Denney and Derrick Dockery, Marshawn served as a spokesperson for the Buffalo Bills "Billieve" Campaign in 2008. Marshawn volunteered at the "Billieve" Breast Cancer Awareness autograph signing of Bills "Billieve" merchandise at the Bills Store in Orchard Park. Five dollars from the sale of each "Billieve" pink logo item goes to the Western New York Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure.

In 2007, Marshawn was a member of the Toyota Rookie Club. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, Marshawn and all first year players did one community appearance as a group. During the 2007 season the Rookie Club visited Women & Children's Hospital of Buffalo, participated in an assembly at Sir Sanford Fleming Academy in Toronto, ON, served Thanksgiving Dinner at Northwest Buffalo Community Center, and hosted the Annual Bills Holiday Party for children at Ralph Wilson Stadium.

Marshawn has also served as a spokesperson for the "What Moves U" Challenge encouraging kids to stay active for at least 60 minutes of every day and to strive to be physically fit. As a rookie Marshawn taught interactive football drills to over 150 women who participated in Football 101. This event was held in the Buffalo Bills Fieldhouse with all proceeds benefiting the WNY Women's Fund.

► PERSONAL

Full name – Terrence Dewayne McGee... attended Athens (TX) High where he was a two-way, two-time all-district selection as a running back and cornerback...was All-state defensive pick as a senior...also earned first-team All-district honors in baseball and was named his school's Athlete of the Year.

OFF THE FIELD

In June 2006, McGee launched his own line of tee shirts and posters known as the Gameday Collection. Gameday Collection posters and tee shirts feature original artwork designed by the pro bowl cornerback/kick returner. The line of posters and t-shirts are offered exclusively at The Bills Store at Ralph Wilson Stadium in Orchard Park and at the Eastview Mall in Rochester. The first edition of posters and t-shirts feature a piece called "Inside". "Inside" is a reprint of an original McGee portrait drawn with charcoal.

"I started drawing again last season to relieve the stress of going through an NFL season," said McGee, who first began producing these charcoal pieces in high school back in Athens, TX. "This is a great opportunity to express my creativity in another way."

Gameday Collection posters are 24x36 and retail for $6. Gameday Collection tee shirts are white and feature a black and white portrait of McGee wearing a Bills helmet and retail for $15. McGee plans to offer a line of Gameday Collection hats beginning in August.

McGEE IN THE COMMUNITY

Terrence participated in the 2007 and the 2008 Community Ticket Donation Program by donating 20 season tickets to various community organizations including Big Brothers Big Sisters, Northwest Buffalo Community Center, Buffalo Prep, Military Families, Berkshire Farms, United Way, Police Athletic League, Boys & Girls Clubs of Buffalo, and Richards House. Over 200 people were part of McGee's Crew and attended Buffalo Bills home games, where they were also treated to food and beverage coupons compliments of Terrence.

In addition to the Community Ticket Donation Program, Terrence supports the annual Kids Escaping Drugs telethon, and attended the Junior Player Development and High School Player Development football camps at Ralph Wilson Stadium. At the camps, which are free for all participants, Terrence worked with middle school and high school football players encouraging the players in attendance to excel both on and off-the-field.

In June 2009, McGee along with Marshawn Lynch served as the lead financial sponsors of Buffalo's 3-on-3 Gus Macker Tournament. Proceeds benefit the Buffalo PAC and Kids Escaping Drugs Campaign.

McKELVIN IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2008, Leodis participated in the Toyota Rookie Club appearing at numerous community events throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, Leodis and all first year players did one community appearance as a group. importance of sport and activity with the student-athletes and to present the football team with $3,000 in new equipment for the school's football program, and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center in November 2008 where the Rookie Club Members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 300 children and families. In addition to serving food, the players introduced themselves to the community members during a brief ceremony, sat and ate with them, and signed autographs.

The final Rookie Club appearance of 2008 took place at the Annual Bills Holiday Party. The Rookie Club and Bills veterans hosted nearly 100 children from a number of different local community organizations. The Annual Holiday Party gives children from the organizations an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with the Bills players, Jills cheerleaders, Billy Buffalo, and Santa Claus. The children received a holiday dinner, pictures and autographs and gifts from a wish list that they had previously submitted.

In addition to his work with the Rookie Club, Leodis also participated in the autograph signing at the Verizon Wireless Store in the McKinley Mall as apart of the Kids Escaping Drugs Campaign. The Campaign was created with the purpose of raising funds for the construction and support of adolescent drug & alcohol treatment facilities.

Leodis also hosted a free football camp for the clients at Kids Escaping Drugs and students at Cleve Hill High School in June 2009.

MOORMAN IN THE COMMUNITY

Brian Moorman is one of the most admired and respected players in the NFL for his dedication to the community. He makes himself available to support the many organizations and agencies involved with the team but on his own he goes above and beyond to help children – especially children facing cancer.

In 2003, he established the Brian Moorman PUNT Foundation to support pediatric cancer research, treatment and social programs. A majority of his work is affiliated with Roswell Park Cancer Institute and Carly's Club, the hospital's family-centered support group for its patients.

He has consistently been a spokesperson and supporter for many events at Roswell Park Cancer Institute including Keith's Classic and Carly's Club golf tournament, All Star Night, Lighting of the Tree of Hope and their annual holiday parties and events for the families.

In addition to lending his name and talents for the cause, he is very hands-on with his approach. Brian and his wife Amber visit Roswell Park Cancer Institute every Tuesday to spend time with the children and their families. In 2004, Carly's Club and Roswell honored Brian with their Annual Hero Award.

In 2005, he was selected from across the league to receive the Annual Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian of the Year award from Pro Football Weekly. He has also been named to the Sporting News "Good Guys" in sports and was the Bills NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year selection in 2003 and 2008 as voted on by selected members of the Western New York Community. The award, which began in 1970, honors players who demonstrate outstanding balance in their lives between civic and professional responsibilities.

In 2006, Brian partnered with several local companies to purchase a luxury suite that is used by Carly's Club children and their families at each home game. Every week Brian personally autographs t-shirts to be handed out to the children in the suite and after each punt you can see him give a wave up to his guests in the suite to let them know he is thinking of them.

On June 9, 2007 Brian hosted the first Family Festival Fundraiser for the PUNT Foundation. This family-based event was designed to raise awareness and funds to support many of the programs funded through the PUNT Foundation. He hopes this will become an annual event.

In December, 2007 The Punt Foundation launched Brian's Locker at Roswell Park Institute. The program is designed to provide children entering the hospital for treatment with a care package to make their time at the hospital more comfortable.

Brian is also a supporter for other Bills community programs. He has visited the City Mission to help serve Thanksgiving lunch at the men's homeless shelter. Brian also has participated in the Bills holiday programs including Shop with the Bills at Dick's and the Annual Bills Holiday Party.

OMON IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2008, Xavier participated in the Toyota Rookie Club appearing at numerous community events throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, Xavier and all first year players did one community appearance as a group. The Toyota Rookie Club events included a visit to Women's and Children's Hospital of Buffalo to paint ceiling tiles for the rooms and hallways and host a pizza party, a visit to the Lincoln M. Alexander Secondary School in Mississauga, Ontario to discuss the importance of sport and activity with the student-athletes and to present the football team with $3,000 in new equipment for the school's football program, and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center in November 2008 where the Rookie Club Members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 300 children and families. In addition to serving food, the players introduced themselves to the community members during a brief ceremony, sat and ate with them, and signed autographs.

The final Rookie Club appearance of 2008 took place at the Annual Bills Holiday Party. The Rookie Club and Bills veterans hosted nearly 100 children from a number of different local community organizations. The Annual Holiday Party gives children from the organizations an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with the Bills players, Bills cheerleaders, Billy Buffalo, and Santa Claus. The children received a holiday dinner, pictures and autographs and gifts from a wish list that they had previously submitted.

WILSON IN THE COMMUNITY

George has been one of the most active Bills players in the community focusing his efforts on education and youth health and fitness. George has taken a leadership role in combating childhood obesity and has encouraged physical activity among children as an active member in the Buffalo Bills "What Moves U" Challenge. George helped to introduce the program in a kickoff celebration for over 1,700 students in the Buffalo Public Schools. At the celebration he participated in a "What Moves U" themed trivia show and also shared health and fitness tips with the group of 3rd - 6th grade students. George annually attends the What Moves U fieldhouse party where he talks with students about the importance of staying active and living a healthy lifestyle. The program is done in partnership with the American Heart Association and BlueCross BlueShield of WNY and stresses the importance of being active for at least 60 minutes of every day and striving to be physically fit. George is one of four players featured on trading cards used in the "What Moves U" Challenge. The trading cards include health and fitness tips from players encouraging kids to stay active as a part of the Play 60 program.

In 2008, George along with Brad Butler visited a number of Buffalo Public High Schools to speak with students on the importance of education and making positive life choices. In 2009, the "That's Life" speaker series sponsored by Xerox was created with Brad and George making weekly visits to Buffalo Public schools to speak with students about reaching their goals and making the most of their opportunities.

George also participated in the Community Ticket Donation Program by donating season tickets to the Buffalo Public Schools. In addition to game tickets members of George's Jungle were also treated to food and beverage coupons compliments of George.

For his work in the community in the area of youth health and fitness, George was presented with the President's Volunteer Service Award on November 30th, 2008. The award is presented to an NFL player from each team who contributes to his community by encouraging kids to stay active and healthy. George received this prestigious award from a White House representative prior to the Bills game against the San Francisco 49ers on November 30th, 2008.

George along with Trent Edwards, served as the spokespeople for the 2009 Buffalo Bills and American Red Cross Blood Drive at Ralph Wilson Stadium encouraging fans to donate blood by filming a PSA, appearing in print materials promoting the Blood Drive, and volunteering at the event.

BUFFALO BILLS HIGH SCHOOL PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

In 2009, the Buffalo Bills and the NFL will once again host the High School Player Development (HSPD) program in the Buffalo Bills Fieldhouse. Nearly 200 incoming high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors from Western New York and Canada attend the free camp each season. The HSPD program is free of charge for all participants.

The HSPD program focuses on specific skill training as well as academic counseling for all participants. Since its inception in 2001, the NFL's nationwide HSPD program has provided participants with a curriculum that focuses on inspiring excellence in the classroom, community, and on the playing field. Participation in the program has grown to more than 9,000 high school student-athletes in 17 cities nationwide.

On-field components of the HSPD program include fundamental skill development by position, reviews, and individual competitions. As part of on-field training, players focus on both an offensive and a defensive position, and eventually apply their newly-learned fundamentals to live drills. Participants have access to innovative teaching and drills developed by leading NCAA and NFL coaches.

At the conclusion of the program, each player receives a personalized portfolio, measuring their skill development by position and providing a complete breakdown of their skill techniques. Their portfolio also notes issues that need to be addressed to improve and advance to the next level.

BUFFALO BILLS YOUTH FOOTBALL STADIUM

In 2004, the Buffalo Bills became pioneers in NFL Youth Football circles by becoming the first NFL franchise to open a facility dedicated for youth football on the same grounds as the team headquarters.

In 2005, the Buffalo Bills Youth Football Stadium began to expand. The stadium located behind Ralph Wilson Stadium added new bleachers, a press box with a full sound system, a full-size wireless scoreboard, a camera deck, and a concession stand (all proceeds from the concessions stand go back to the youth football organizations). The Bills received a matching grant from the NFL Youth Football Fund to assist in paying for the renovations.

In 2008 more than 40 youth football games were played at the Buffalo Bills Youth Football Stadium. The stadium was used by more than 5,000 Youth Football players, coaches, cheerleaders, and fans throughout the season.

The manicured, regulation-size grass football field is located behind Ralph Wilson Stadium in a space formally occupied by the Bills' outdoor practice field. The field is used by teams in the Western New York Amateur Football Alliance, which consists of approximately 300 youth football teams throughout Western New York, and by the Western New York Pop Warner Organization.

If you would like more information about the Buffalo Bills Youth Football stadium please email us at BUF-Community@bills.nfl.net or contact us by phone at 716-648-1800.

BILLS 34, SEAHAWKS 10

September 7, 2008 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 71,194

- ▶ The Buffalo Bills kicked off their 2008 season with a 34-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on a rainy Sunday afternoon at Ralph Wilson Stadium.
- ▶ Marshawn Lynch put the Bills on the board late in the first quarter when he took the handoff from QB Trent Edwards and scampered 21 yards to the end zone to put the Bills ahead 7-0. Lynch finished the game with 76 yards rushing on 18 carries.
- ▶ Though both the Bills offense and defense had solid games, it was the special teams that made the most noise against the Seahawks. Bills WR Roscoe Parrish returned a Ryan Plackemeier punt 63 yards for a touchdown with 6:20 to go in the half. It was Parrish's third career punt return for a touchdown, tying him for first place with Keith Moody on Buffalo's all-time list. His 120 return yards in the game set a new Bills record, breaking his own record of 104 yards set in 2006 against Jacksonville.
- ▶ The second half began with the Seahawks climbing back to within 10, when K Olindo Mare converted a 45-yard field goal. Then the game turned on the back of Buffalo's special teams. With 2:21 remaining in the third quarter, the Bills lined up for what appeared to be a 36-yard field goal attempt. Instead, Bills P Brian Moorman picked up the snap and threw a 19-yard touchdown pass to a wide-open DE Ryan Denney, who had snuck behind the Seahawks defense. It was the first touchdown pass of Moorman's career, and the first touchdown of Denney's career.
- ▶ On the ensuing kickoff, Bills LB Jon Corto forced a fumble which was recovered by K Rian Lindell on the 30-yard line. One play later, TE Robert Royal was in the end zone, the recipient of a pass from QB Trent Edwards. For the game, Edwards was 19 of 30 for 215 yards and one touchdown. His passer rating of 95.8 was the highest of any Bills quarterback making his Kickoff Weekend debut since Jim Kelly in 1986.
- ▶ Former Bills TE Kevin Everett was honored at halftime by the Pro Football Writers of America with the Halas award. The award is given annually to the individual in the NFL who overcame the most adversity to succeed.

BILLS 20, JAGUARS 16

September 14, 2008 – Jacksonville Municipal Stadium – 65,167

- The Buffalo Bills used a quick start and a stellar finish to defeat the Jacksonville Jaguars 20-16 Sunday afternoon at Jacksonville Municipal Stadium. The Bills improved to 2-0 on the season, the first time since 2003 that they began a season with two consecutive victories.
- The Bills were led by second-year QB Trent Edwards, who was 20 of 25 for 239 yards on the afternoon with one touchdown. On the Bills first possession of the game, Edwards led the Bills on an 11-play, 82-yard drive that RB Marshawn Lynch finished off with an 11-yard dash into the end zone for a 7-0 lead. Edwards was 6 for 6 on the drive for 53 yards.
- The teams traded field goals before the half to send the Bills into halftime with a 10-3 lead. The momentum swung fully to Jacksonville after the break, as they took the second half kickoff and marched 74 yards for a touchdown and a tie game. On the ensuing kickoff, Jacksonville Head Coach Jack Del Rio caught the Bills special teams off-guard and called for a surprise onside kick. After the Jaguars recovered, they drove 29 yards for a Josh Scobee field goal. After another Scobee field goal, the Bills found themselves trailing 10-16 just over 30 seconds into the fourth quarter.
- It was Edwards, again, who led the Bills down the field with seven minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. After connecting with WR Lee Evans for a 37-yard gain on a critical third-and-six to bring the Bills to the Jacksonville seven yard line, Edwards threw a perfectly placed pass to rookie WR James Hardy on the next play from scrimmage. The go-ahead score was Hardy's first career touchdown reception. After the Bills defense held the Jaguars to a three-and-out on their next possession, Buffalo tacked on a Rian Lindell field goal with 24 seconds left.
- In addition to the contributions of Edwards and Hardy, the Bills offense got a big boost from backup RB Fred Jackson, who rushed for 17 yards and had a career-high seven receptions for 83 yards. Their defense was led by CB Terrence McGee, who had seven tackles, one pass defense, and an interception.

BILLS 24, RAIDERS 23

September 21, 2008 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 71,297

- For the first time in 16 years, the Buffalo Bills are 3-0 to start their season. The Bills won in dramatic fashion Sunday afternoon at Ralph Wilson Stadium, staging a fourth-quarter rally that saw the team come from nine points down in the final six minutes to beat the Oakland Raiders 24-23. Their comeback was capped off by a 38-yard Rian Lindell field goal as time expired to give the Bills their third straight win.
- QB Trent Edwards led the Bills offense to three fourth-quarter scores, going 14-for-19 for 182 yards and a touchdown on the final three drives, and hitting WR Roscoe Parrish for a touchdown to bring the Bills to within two with four minutes remaining. After the Buffalo defense held the Raiders to a three-and-out on their ensuing possession, Edwards engineered a final 46-yard drive to set up Lindell's winning kick.
- Things had not gone so smoothly for Buffalo in the game's first three quarters, starting with the opening kickoff. Oakland WR Johnnie Lee Higgins returned the kick 69 yards to the Buffalo 30-yardline and six plays later; the Raiders were on the board after K Sebastian Janikowski converted a 23-yard field goal.
- The Bills responded with a scoring drive of their own in the second quarter to put themselves ahead 7-6 on RB Marshawn Lynch's 14-yard run into the end zone. Lynch finished the day with 83 yards rushing on 23 carries and two touchdowns. Though the Bills kept it close after Lynch's run, the Raiders struck a near-death blow with 6:23 left in the fourth quarter when Oakland QB JaMarcus Russell threw a strike to Higgins, who cut through the Buffalo defense for an 84-yard score.
- The Bills were not to be denied their third victory of the young season, though, as Edwards rallied the offense for the team's final two drives of the game. With the victory and a New England Patriot loss, the Bills sit alone atop the AFC East, one of only six unbeaten teams in the NFL.

BILLS 31, RAMS 14

September 28, 2008 – Edward Jones Dome – 61,017

- The Buffalo Bills won their fourth consecutive game to start the 2008 season to move to 4-0 for the eighth time in the franchise's 49-year history and first since 1992. The Bills overcame a slow start to defeat the St. Louis Rams 31-14 at the Edward Jones Dome in St. Louis, Mo.
- For the third week in a row, the Bills found themselves trailing heading into the final quarter. They had surrendered two long rushing touchdowns in the first half to the Rams, who held a 14-6 halftime lead. But just as they had in the previous two weeks, the Bills climbed back into the game. Their first touchdown came in the third quarter, on a 22-yard rush from RB Fred Jackson. The score was the first of Jackson's career and drew the Bills to within one.
- CB Jabari Greer scored the go-ahead points just 12 seconds into the fourth quarter, when he intercepted a Trent Green pass and returned it 33 yards to the end zone. The Buffalo offense did the rest. QB Trent Edwards led the Bills on two final scoring drives, going three of three for 66 yards in the final quarter, including a 39-yard touchdown pass to WR Lee Evans. The touchdown reception was Evans' first on the season and his first-ever touchdown reception in the month of September. After the two-point conversion pass play from Edwards to Evans, the Bills extended their lead to two touchdowns.
- K Rian Lindell added on a 45-yard field goal with 6:21 remaining for the final margin. The kick was the third on the day for Lindell. Rookie CB Leodis McKelvin saw his first significant playing time at cornerback and added a final exclamation point to the game when he hit Rams WR Dane Looker and forced a fumble that he recovered as the fourth quarter wound down.

2008 Review

BILLS 17, CARDINALS 41

October 5, 2008 – University of Phoenix Stadium – 63,830

- The Buffalo Bills stayed with the high-powered Arizona Cardinals offense for 30 minutes Sunday afternoon in Glendale, Az., before they surrendered 17 straight unanswered points in the second half and lost, 17-41. It was the first loss of the season for the Bills.
- Buffalo felt the effects of losing key members of both their offense and defense to injuries. Starting CB Terrence McGee was inactive for the game with a sprained knee, and Arizona QB Kurt Warner took advantage. Warner finished the game 33 of 42 for 250 yards and two touchdowns to standout wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald.
- On their third play from scrimmage, Bills starting QB Trent Edwards took a hit from Cardinals S Adrian Wilson and left the game with a concussion. Second-string QB J.P. Losman stepped in and on his third series, connected with WR Lee Evans for an 87-yard touchdown pass. The score came with 12 minutes remaining in the second quarter and drew the Bills within seven. Evans finished the game with two catches for 100 yards, his second 100-yard receiving game of the season and 11th of his career, which moved him past Peerless Price and into sole possession of fifth place on the franchise record list for most 100-yard receiving games.
- Losman also scored on a 2-yard quarterback sneak at the end of the second quarter to close the gap to seven again. But the Bills were only able to muster a Rian Lindell field goal in the second half as Arizona extended their lead, helped along by three Buffalo turnovers.
- If there was one bright spot for the Bills, it was the play of their rookie class. WR James Hardy earned his first career start at wide receiver and caught three passes for 35 yards. CB Reggie Corner and WR Steve Johnson saw their first-ever regular season NFL action, with Corner amassing two tackles and Johnson catching his first-career pass for eight yards. CB Leodis McKelvin continued his solid play as the Bills primary kick returner, accruing 133 yards on six kickoff returns.

BILLS 23, CHARGERS 14

October 19, 2008 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 71,602

- The Buffalo Bills bounced back from their first loss of the year and came out of their bye week with a 23-14 win over the San Diego Chargers on Sunday afternoon at Ralph Wilson Stadium. The lead changed hands four times on the day, and the outcome was still in doubt before Bills LB Kawika Mitchell made two huge plays in the game's final six minutes to seal the victory for Buffalo.
- With six minutes left in the game and San Diego on the Buffalo nine yard line, Mitchell intercepted a Philip Rivers pass intended for TE Antonio Gates in the end zone and returned it 32 yards. The interception was Mitchell's first of the season and set up the Buffalo offense for a seven-play, 43-yard drive that ended in a 44-yard field goal from K Rian Lindell.
- On the Chargers' ensuing possession, Rivers dropped back to pass and was sacked by Mitchell. Mitchell's helmet hit Rivers' arm, causing him to drop the football, which was recovered by Bills DE Copeland Bryan. With only three minutes remaining, the Buffalo offense came back on the field and ran out the clock on their fifth victory of the year. The AFC East-leading Bills improved to 5-1 on the season, the franchise's best start since 1995.
- In addition to Mitchell, the Bills were led by second-year QB Trent Edwards, who finished the day 25 of 30 for 261 yards and one touchdown to WR Lee Evans. The Buffalo offensive line gave Edwards time to throw all afternoon, allowing him to complete passes to seven different receivers.
- Bills second-year RB Marshawn Lynch rushed 19 times for 70 yards and had a third-quarter touchdown run that put the Bills up for good, 20-14.

BILLS 16, DOLPHINS 25

October 26, 2008 – Dolphin Stadium – 65,011

- ▶ A rash of fourth-quarter turnovers turned a nine-point lead into a nine-point deficit as the Buffalo Bills lost 25-16 to the Miami Dolphins on Sunday afternoon in Miami Gardens, Fla.
- ▶ In the first half, the Bills received contributions from all three facets of their team. The Buffalo offense, led by a combined rushing attack of RBs Marshawn Lynch (27 yards in the first half) and Fred Jackson (26 yards), scored on three of their five first-half possessions. Second-year MLB Paul Posluszny forced a Ricky Williams fumble on the Dolphins third possession that was recovered by WLB Keith Ellison, and on special teams, 6'-8" RT Langston Walker blocked a Miami field goal try. The blocked FG was the franchise's first since 2001. The Bills went into the break with a 9-7 lead.
- ▶ Buffalo began the second half strong, as they took the kickoff and drove 70 yards in eight plays. The drive ended with Lynch scampering into the end zone from eight yards out to put the Bills ahead by nine.
- ▶ It would all go downhill from there for the Bills, as they turned the ball over three times in the contest's final 15 minutes and surrendered a safety to the Dolphins with eight minutes remaining in the game. QB Trent Edwards was intercepted once and fumbled while trying to stretch for a first down and TE Robert Royal coughed up the ball on Buffalo's final offensive possession.
- ▶ With the loss, the Bills fall to 5-2 on the season, and hold a share of the AFC East lead. The Dolphins improve to 3-5.

BILLS 17, JETS 26

November 2, 2008 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 71,827

- The Buffalo Bills drew to within a touchdown of the New York Jets early in the fourth quarter, but could not overcome the deficit, as they lost 17-26 Sunday afternoon at Ralph Wilson Stadium. The loss was the second in a row for the Bills, who fall to 5-3 on the year.
- Buffalo QB Trent Edwards threw for a career-high 289 yards in the loss, with one touchdown and two interceptions. After the Jets scored a field goal just 1:47 into the game, Edwards led the Bills on a 57-yard touchdown drive that ended with a nine-yard pass to rookie TE Derek Fine, who was wide open in the end zone. The reception was the first of Fine's career, and he ended the day with four catches for 43 yards.
- After allowing the Buffalo touchdown, the Jets scored the contest's next 13 points to go ahead 16-7. Buffalo K Rian Lindell drew the Bills back within six when he hit a 53-yard field goal near the end of the third quarter, which was his longest of the year and just one yard shy of his career-long.
- After the Jets scored to take a 23-10 lead, hope was restored to the Bills in the form of a 42-yard interception return for a touchdown by CB Jabari Greer. Jets QB Brett Favre threw short left, intended for WR Jericho Cotchery, and Greer cut in front, snagged the ball, and sprinted down the Jets sideline for the score.
- New York responded with a methodical 14-play, 65-yard drive that took 8:41 off of the clock. Jets K Jay Feely converted a 31-yard field goal to put the Jets up by two scores with 2:12 to go in the game. A last-gasp drive by the Bills ended in an Edwards interception in the end zone.

BILLS 10, PATRIOTS 20

November 9, 2008 – Gillette Stadium – 68,756

- ▶ The Buffalo Bills offense struggled all afternoon against the New England Patriots in Foxborough, Mass., amassing only 168 total yards, as the Bills dropped their third game in a row to an AFC East division opponent. It was the Bills 10th straight loss to the Patriots, who improved to 6-3 and held onto their share of the division lead.
- ▶ The Patriots got out to a 10-0 lead thanks to a 13-yard touchdown run by QB Matt Cassel early in the first quarter and a 32-yard Stephen Gostkowski field goal early in the second. The Bills were able to put together an 11-play, 56 yard drive in the middle of the second quarter, helped along by two third-down passes by QB Trent Edwards. The drive ended with a 25-yard Rian Lindell field goal, and the Bills went into the break down a touchdown, 3-10.
- ▶ The second half brought more of the same for Buffalo. Edwards threw his second interception late in the third quarter and the offense struggled to string a drive together. DT Marcus Stroud forced a fumble early in the fourth quarter, which was recovered by S George Wilson, but the Bills punted the ball away just six plays later.
- ▶ A late spark was provided by rookie KR Leodis McKelvin, who broke an 85-yard return to set the Bills up on the Patriots 14-yard line. One play later, rookie WR James Hardy was in the end zone, the recipient of a 14-yard pass from Edwards. It was the second touchdown catch of Hardy's career, but it was too little, too late for the Bills. After Buffalo could not recover the ensuing the onside kick, New England ran out the clock on their 20-10 victory.

BILLS 27, BROWNS 29

November 17, 2008 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 71,645

- The Bills lost their fourth straight game Monday night versus the Cleveland Browns at Ralph Wilson Stadium. The loss dropped the Bills to 5-5 on the year, two games out of first place in the AFC East.
- Cleveland K Phil Dawson hit a 56-yard field goal with 1:39 left in the fourth quarter to put the Browns up by two. An answering drive by the Buffalo offense brought the Bills to the Cleveland 30-yard line, but K Rian Lindell's try curved just wide with 46 seconds remaining. The Bills weathered four turnovers to almost pull off the come-from-behind victory.
- The Bills defense held early in the game, forcing a quick Browns three-and-out after Buffalo QB Trent Edwards was intercepted on his first pass attempt of the game. When Edwards was again intercepted on his third attempt of the game, the Browns took advantage, and went ahead 3-0 on a Phil Dawson field goal. After another Dawson field goal, Cleveland went ahead 13-0 on a two-yard Joshua Cribbs touchdown run early in the second.
- The Bills struck back, marching 59 yards down the field and utilizing both RBs – Marshawn Lynch and Fred Jackson. It was Lynch who took the Bills into the end zone, the recipient of an 18-yard pass from Edwards. The receiving touchdown was the first of Lynch's career and drew the Bills to within six. A 26-yard field goal from Lindell left them down by only three heading into the break.
- The teams traded field goals in the third quarter, but on the first play of the fourth quarter, Cleveland RB Jerome Harrison took the handoff from QB Brady Quinn and went 72 yards for a touchdown and a 10-point Cleveland lead.
- The Bills struck back immediately, as rookie KR Leodis McKelvin returned the ensuing kick 98 yards for a touchdown. McKelvin was the first Bills rookie to return a kickoff for a touchdown since 1996.

BILLS 54, CHIEFS 31

November 23, 2008 – Arrowhead Stadium – 73, 584

- ▶ The Buffalo Bills recorded their second-highest point total in franchise history with a 54-31 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs at Arrowhead Stadium.
- ▶ After falling behind 7-0 early in the first, the Bills quickly responded with a nine-play, 61-yard drive that ended with RB Marshawn Lynch pushing into the end zone from a yard out. The first quarter ended with the teams tied at 7, but the game would turn in the second quarter on four Kansas City turnovers.
- ▶ Bills S George Wilson recovered a fumble forced by rookie CB Reggie Corner, and Buffalo turned it into a 39-yard Rian Lindell FG. On the Chiefs next possession, rookie CB Leodis McKelvin intercepted a pass intended for Mark Bradley and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown and a 20-14 lead.
- ▶ Buffalo QB Trent Edwards accounted for four Buffalo touchdowns on the day. At the close of the second quarter, the Bills capitalized on another McKelvin interception and ended the half with Edwards scrambling 15 yards for the touchdown. He added another rushing touchdown to start the second half, and then threw two, one to WR Josh Reed, Reed's first touchdown reception since 2006, and the second to TE Derek Schouman, Schouman's first career TD reception.
- ▶ The win brings the Bills to 6-5, two games out of first place in the AFC East.

BILLS 3, 49ers 10

November 30, 2008 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 70,988

- ▶ On a wet and windy day at Ralph Wilson Stadium, neither the San Francisco 49ers nor the Buffalo Bills could muster much on the offensive side of the ball. The 49ers had the game's lone touchdown, and in the end that was enough for the win, as the Bills lost their sixth game of the year, 10-3.
- ▶ The story of the game for the Bills was their poor execution inside the red zone. Though the team took four trips inside the San Francisco 20-yard line, they came away with just three points.
- ▶ San Francisco opened the game with a 14-play, 72-yard touchdown drive, that ended on a 12-yard pass from QB Shaun Hill to WR Isaac Bruce. The Bills responded with a long drive of their own to open the second quarter, but the drive stalled inside the five-yard line, and K Rian Lindell's 20-yard field goal attempt slammed directly into the left upright, his first miss under 40 yards in 54 attempts.
- ▶ The 49ers tacked on a field goal near the end of the second quarter, and the half ended with the Bills down 10-0.
- ▶ A groin injury to starting QB Trent Edwards forced back-up quarterback J.P. Losman onto the field to start the second half for the Bills, and on their second drive, they found their way onto the scoreboard via a 22-yard field goal from Lindell. The kick was set up by a 50-yard scamper by Lynch that took the Bills to the nine yard line. That would be the final score of the day, as the teams traded scoreless drives throughout the final quarter of play.
- ▶ Buffalo's defense excelled in the fourth quarter, notching two sacks and forcing the 49ers into two quick punts, but the offense couldn't convert on either opportunity, first turning the ball over on downs, and then watching as Lindell hit the left upright for the second time on a 40-yard field goal try.
- ▶ In defeat, Lynch ran 16 times for a season-high 134 yards, and TE Derek Schouman caught four passes for 44 yards, both new career-highs.

BILLS 3, DOLPHINS 16

December 7, 2008 – Rogers Centre – 52,134

- ▶ The Buffalo Bills hosted the Miami Dolphins in the first-ever regular season NFL game played on Canadian soil and the Bills lost 16-3.
- ▶ The Dolphins began the day's scoring with a 20-yard touchdown pass from QB Chad Pennington to TE Anthony Fasano midway through the first quarter, but the Bills responded on their next possession, a nine-play, 40-yard drive that ended with a 40-yard Rian Lindell field goal. The kick was the 200th successful field goal of Lindell's career.
- ▶ For the first half, the Dolphins held a nearly 2-to-1 edge in time of possession, and Buffalo went into the locker room trailing 13-3. The Bills had their best shot at the end zone near the end of the third quarter, when QB J.P. Losman led the Bills to the Miami three yard line. Losman lofted a fade pass into the end zone intended for WR Lee Evans. The ball was picked off by Dolphins CB Will Allen, and the Dolphins offense took over. That would be all for the Buffalo offense, as their three fourth quarter possessions ended with a punt, a turnover on downs, and a fumble.

BILLS 27, JETS 31

December 14, 2008 – The Meadowlands – 78,548

- ▶ Fourth-quarter turnovers turned a three-point Bills lead into a four-point Jets victory as the Bills lost their fifth AFC East game of the year to the New York Jets, 27-31.
- ▶ The Bills appeared to have secured the win by taking a 27-24 lead with just over five minutes remaining in the game on an 11-yard touchdown run by RB Fred Jackson. The Bills defense forced a three-and-out, and with two minutes remaining, the Bills were driving with a win within their grasp. Then Jets S Abram Elam came around the blind side of Buffalo QB J.P. Losman and forced a fumble, which was recovered by DE Shaun Ellis, who went 11 yards to the end zone for the go-ahead score.
- ▶ The fumble was the second of four turnovers for the Bills in the final quarter. On their first play from scrimmage after the Jets touchdown, Losman threw a pass that was intended for TE Robert Royal, but was intercepted by Jets CB Darrelle Revis. Buffalo's defense forced a quick turnover on downs, but the Bills final possession ended in a desperation heave by Losman that was picked off on the Jets two-yard line.
- ▶ The dismal performance in the fourth quarter marred what had been a solid performance otherwise for Buffalo, especially on the part of the Bills special teams and defense. Special teams contributed a fake punt that resulted in a first down, and Roscoe Parrish had a 56-yard punt return, which led to the Bills second touchdown of the afternoon. Leodis McKelvin appeared to have his second kickoff return touchdown of the season, returning a fourth-quarter kickoff 100 yards before the score was nullified by a holding penalty on the return.
- ▶ On defense, LB Paul Posluszny recorded the first interception of his career, and CB Terrence McGee overcame pre-game back spasms to register his third pick of the year in the third quarter.

BILLS 30, BRONCOS 23

December 21, 2008 – INVESCO Field at Mile High – 74,539

- The Buffalo Bills walked away from an exciting back-and-forth affair at INVESCO Field with their first victory in four weeks as they defeated the Denver Broncos 30-23. Led by RB Fred Jackson, who recorded the go-ahead touchdown on an eight-yard run with two minutes remaining in the game, the Buffalo offense overcame a tough first quarter that saw them fall behind by 13. In addition to his fourth-quarter touchdown, Jackson set up Buffalo's second touchdown of the day with a 65-yard reception from QB Trent Edwards, who was back in action after missing three games due to injury, that put the Bills at the three-yard line. Three plays later, rookie WR Steve Johnson caught his second touchdown pass of the year from Edwards, which put the Bills ahead 23-20 with 12:50 remaining in the final quarter.
- Jackson's backfield mate, RB Marshawn Lynch, scored Buffalo's first touchdown of the game just before halftime on a two-yard rush. Lynch had 34 yards on 11 carries before leaving the game with a shoulder injury.
- Despite giving up 532 yards to Denver's potent offense, the Bills defense came up with big plays when needed. S Donte Whitner forced a third-quarter fumble that was recovered by CB Reggie Corner. The turnover led to K Rian Lindell's third field goal of the game and put the Bills up 16-13. After Jackson's touchdown, with Denver driving deep in Buffalo territory, LB Kawika Mitchell stepped in front of a pass intended for Denver WR Brandon Marshall and came down with the ball at the Buffalo one-yard line. After the Bills went three-and-out, the Buffalo defense held again, with Corner breaking up Denver QB Jay Cutler's fourth-down pass to the end zone. Corner was credited with a career-high four pass break-ups on the day.

December 28, 2008 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 71,282

- ▶ With swirling winds turning even the simplest play into an adventure, the Buffalo Bills were unable to find the end zone on Sunday afternoon at Ralph Wilson Stadium and lost their final game of the 2008 season to the New England Patriots, 13-0. Pre-game gusts were recorded at 75 mph and during the game were sustained between 35-50 mph. The wind wreaked havoc on the kicking and passing games of both teams. Patriots QB Matt Cassel attempted only eight passes, but the Patriots were able to put together three scoring drives, led by RBs Sammy Morris (24 carries for 85 yards) and Lamont Jordan (20 carries for 64 yards). Cassel himself, added three rushes for 19 yards.
- ▶ In light of the weather, the Bills also sidelined their passing game early in favor of RB Fred Jackson, who had a career-high 136 rushing yards on 27 attempts. QB Trent Edwards did not even attempt a pass until the first play of the second quarter. On the game, the second-year quarterback was 14 of 25 for 128 yards. Though Jackson was able to get the Bills close, they could never close the deal. An early second-quarter field goal attempt by K Rian Lindell was caught up in the wind and sailed wide right. Just before halftime, Buffalo drove to the New England 12 yard line with 22 seconds remaining, only to have the clock expire before they were able to get off another play.
- ▶ The Bills never got closer than the New England 34 yard line the rest of the game, as their final five drives went: turnover, punt, downs, downs, end of game, respectively. With the loss, the Bills finish 7-9 for the third consecutive year.

BUFFALO BILLS ALL-TIME TEAM

The Buffalo Bills announced the 26 members of the Bills 50th Season All-Time Team presented by Tops on April 25 at the Season Ticket Holder Draft Day Party, held at Ralph Wilson Stadium.

The players were chosen by fans from a list of nominees that were selected by the Bills Wall of Fame Committee this past January. Players nominated to the list by the WOF Committee had to have played for the Bills for at least four seasons or have been a member of the Bills 25th Anniversary Team.

The Bills legends were voted to the Bills 50th Season All-Time Team by fans during an interactive fan voting process that took place between February 19th and April 19th. Nearly half-a-million votes were tabulated through online voting through the Bills website and mail-in balloting provided by Labatt Blue through Tops Markets and other local participating retailers.

The Bills 50th Season All-Time Team presented by Tops will be recognized during a special on-field ceremony at Ralph Wilson Stadium during the Bills home opener vs. the Tampa Bay Buccaneers September 20, 2009.

"This is something I am truly honored to be a part of," said 50th Season All-Time Team Quarterback Jim Kelly. "I'm honored to have played with some great players and to have played for a great coach in Marv Levy. I just look at all the guys who helped me do it including Kent Hull ~ especially Kent Hull at center. He really helped me get to where I am."

"For a large segment of the population in Western New York, there could be no greater honor," said 50th Season All-Time Team special teamer Steve Tasker.

Brian Moorman was the only current Buffalo Bills player to be selected to the All-Time Team by the fans. "Words cannot explain what it means to be named to the Bills All-Time team," said 50th Season All-Time Team punter Brian Moorman. "To be mentioned in the same sentence as current and future Hall of Fame players is amazing. Thank you to all of the Bills fans who voted for me and believe I deserve such an honor. It will make walking through the tunnel on Sunday's to play in front of all of you even more special."

BUFFALO BILLS

HISTORY

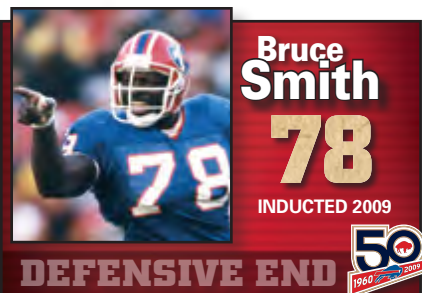

The impact Ralph Wilson, Jr. has had on professional football culminated this year with his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

For starters, he is the only original AFL owner to keep his team in its originating city. The role he played in the AFL-NFL merger, his presence on nearly every NFL committee and his passion for the game as one who has always had the league's best interests at heart before his own team has led many to refer to him as the NFL's "voice of reason."

Under his direction as owner, the Bills won two AFL Championships in 1964 and 1965 and were the only AFL team to make the postseason in four consecutive years (1963-66). Later, his Bills would become the only team ever to win four consecutive AFC championships (1990-93) and appear in four consecutive Super Bowls.

He has been honored with numerous awards, including the Pete Rozelle Award from the Touchdown Club in New Orleans, the NFL Alumni's "Order of the Leather Helmet" and the "Timmie" Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington D.C. In 2008, Mr. Wilson received the Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. (Reds) Bagnell Award for Contributions to the Game of Football and the inaugural Lamar Hunt Award for Professional Football at the 101 Awards in Kansas City. At the turn of the century The Buffalo News named Ralph Wilson, Jr. as the "Top Sports Figure" of the region in the past millennium.

Widely regarded as one of the most dominant defensive players ever to play in the National Football League, Bruce Smith began his tenure with the Buffalo Bills in 1985. Over the next 19 seasons, Smith would amass more sacks (200) than any other player in NFL history. In Buffalo, Smith anchored the defense for 15 years, which ranks first (along with WR Andre Reed) for the most seasons played in a Bills uniform. In 10 of those years, Buffalo reached the postseason.

Taken with the first overall pick in the 1985 NFL Draft, Smith started 13 games his rookie year and collected 48 tackles and 6.5 sacks. Those numbers jumped to 63 and 15.0, respectively, in 1986. Perhaps his finest year came in 1990, when he posted 101 tackles, 19.0 sacks and 14 QB pressures while the team won its first of four consecutive AFC Championships.

Smith was named to the Pro Bowl 11 times in his career and was the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1990 and 1996. Known for his ability to get to the opposing quarterback, Smith racked up sacks against 74 different quarterbacks and against every team but three: San Diego, Buffalo, and Baltimore. He ranks first in NFL history with 13 seasons of 10 or more sacks and second on the all-time postseason sack list with 14.5.

He was named to the NFL's All-Decade team in both the 1980's and 1990's. Smith was the AFC Defensive Player of the Week eight times during his Bills tenure, and Defensive Player of the Month six times. Extremely durable, Smith ranks 13th on the all-time games played list with 279.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- NFL's all-time sack leader with 200.
- Selected to 11 Pro Bowls.

Thurman Thomas developed into one of the NFL's most versatile and dangerous offensive players in his 13 years in the league. He was also known as one of the team's most emotional leaders for the Buffalo Bills – a team that won more games (103) than any AFC team in the 1990s.

His ability to catch the ball as well as run with it was a key ingredient to the Bills' "No Huddle" offensive attack.

The team improved to 13-3 in 1990 as Thomas led the NFL in all-purpose yards. He rushed for 11,297 yards and scored 11 touchdowns while catching 49 passes for 532 yards and two touchdowns. With the versatile back leading the way, the Bills marched through the playoffs to the first of their unprecedented four straight Super Bowl berths.

In 1991, Thomas amassed more than 2,000 all-purpose yards, just the 11th player ever to do so. His league-leading yardage output included 1,407 yards on the ground and an additional 631 yards on a career-high 62 receptions. He scored 12 touchdowns. He reached the 2,000-yard total again the following season which marked a record fourth straight season of leading the NFL in yards from scrimmage.

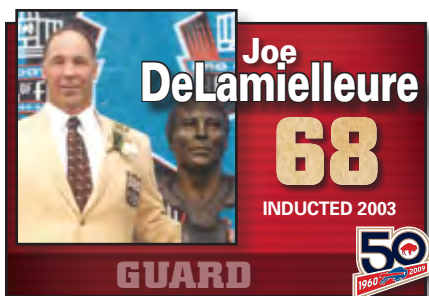

Named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, Thomas was selected first- or second-team All-Pro and All-AFC five times, and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. Thomas retired as the NFL's ninth ranked rusher with 12,074 yards and added another 4,458 yards on 472 catches. He scored 65 rushing and 23 receiving touchdowns in his 13-season career.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- First NFL player to lead the NFL in yards from scrimmage in four consecutive seasons (1989-92)
- Third Back in history to record 400 receptions and 10,000 rushing yards
- Five-time Pro Bowl selection and 1991 NFL Most Valuable Player

In the 1970s, Joe DeLamielleure and his Buffalo Bills offensive line mates were dubbed the "Electric Company," because they "turned the juice loose." The "juice" of course was Hall of Fame running back O.J. Simpson. An All-America and three-time All-Big Ten performer at Michigan State, "Joe D" was selected in the first round of the 1973 NFL Draft by the Bills.

Extremely durable and dependable, Joe played in 185 consecutive games during his 13 playing seasons with the Bills and the Cleveland Browns. A starter from the first game of his rookie season,

DeLamielleure started in every game for eight seasons in Buffalo before being traded to Cleveland in 1980.

He went on to become the most honored lineman of the Bills respected front wall. Eight times during his career he was selected first- or second-team All-Pro; seven times he was named first- or second-team All-AFC, and six times he was named to the Pro Bowl. Since 1970, only two Hall of Fame guards, John Hannah with 10 and Gene Upshaw with seven, were named All-Pro more often.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to six straight Pro Bowls from 1976-1981
- First or second-team All-Pro from 1974-1980, 1983
- Named to the 1970s All-Decade Team

James Lofton's speed and soft hands made him an immediate deep-threat receiver from the moment he entered the pros in 1978.

It was something he would remain throughout his long career with Green Bay, the Los Angeles Raiders, Buffalo Bills, Los Angeles Rams, and the Philadelphia Eagles. In 16 seasons, Lofton caught 764 passes for 14,004 yards – an average of 18.3 yards per catch. His 14,004 career-reception yardage mark was an NFL best at the time of his retirement, while his 43 games with 100 or more yards receiving ranked third.

In 1987, Lofton was traded to the Raiders, and two years later joined the Bills. In Buffalo, he reemerged as one of the game's premier deep-threats. In 1991, at age 35, the still-speedy receiver became the oldest player in league history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

Extremely durable, Lofton was the first NFL player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. Many of his 75 touchdown receptions came on long passes when he simply outran the opposition.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- When he retired in 1993, his total of 14,004 yards was No. 1 all-time
- Selected to eight Pro Bowls (1979, 1981-86, 1992), named All-Pro four times and All-NFC three times
- Only player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s

A strong-armed passer with a "linebacker's mentality," Kelly virtually rewrote the Bills' record book for quarterbacks. Only three players in NFL history had reached the 30,000-yard career passing mark faster. Eight times during his NFL career he passed for more than 3,000 yards in a season, and twenty-six times he passed for more than 300 yards in a game.

With Kelly and teammates Thurman Thomas and Andre Reed, the Bills possessed a highly potent offense during the 1990s. Kelly's quick decisiveness and fast paced "no-huddle" offense terrorized opposing defenses.

In 11 seasons in Buffalo, Kelly led the Bills to the playoffs eight times. In 17 playoff game appearances, including four consecutive Super Bowls, he passed for 3,863 yards and 21 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, his 84.4 passer rating ranked sixth all-time and was second when compared to Hall of Fame quarterbacks. His 35,467 career passing yards ranked tenth in NFL history; his 2,874 completions ranked eighth; and his 237 touchdowns ranked thirteenth.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to four Pro Bowls: 1987, 1990-1992
- Led the Bills to an unprecedented four straight Super Bowls from 1990-1993
- Passed for more than 3,000 yards eight times

INDUCTED 2001

1960-2001

In 1986, when Marv Levy was chosen to direct the fortunes of the Buffalo Bills, he brought with him more than 30 years of coaching experience. In 1987, his first full season with the Bills, the team returned to respectability with a 7-8 record and were in the playoff hunt throughout most of the season.

The following season the team posted a 12-4 record and won the first of six AFC Eastern Division titles. With his high-powered “no-huddle” offense, Levy went on to set a new standard for NFL coaches as he led his AFC championship team to four consecutive Super Bowl appearances.

From 1988 through 1997, the Bills were first in the AFC in winning percentage and second only to the San Francisco 49ers in the NFL. Levy, the winningest coach in Bills’ history, recorded a 112-70 regular season record and was 11-8 in the playoffs during his 11 seasons with the Bills. He was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1988 and AFC Coach of the Year in 1988, 1993, and 1995.

Billy Shaw

GUARD

Equally adept at pass blocking and run blocking, Billy Shaw’s ability to pull out in front of runners was a perfect fit for the Bills. Shaw’s speed, strength, and natural ability made him “the driving force of the offensive unit” according to his former offensive line coach Jerry Smith.

Especially effective on short-yardage scoring plays, Shaw would pull out from his left guard position followed by heavy-duty runners Cookie Gilchrist and Wray Carlton. Bills quarterback Jack Kemp or his super-sub Daryle Lamonica would follow the powerful trio of blockers – often untouched – into the end zone.

A key member of the Bills teams that won AFL titles in 1964 and 1965, Shaw was named a first-team All-AFL selection five times (1962 through 1966) and also a second team All-AFL choice in 1962, 1968 and 1969.

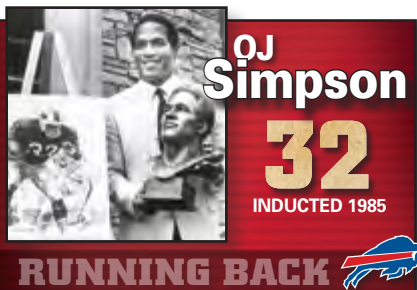

He was selected to play in eight AFL All-Star Games and was named to the All-Time AFL Team. Named to pro football’s All-Decade Team of the 1960s, Shaw is the first Hall of Fame member to play his entire career in the AFL.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped lead the Bills to back-to-back AFL titles in 1964 and 1965
- Named All-AFL five times (1962-1966)

O. J. Simpson, a two-time All-American from the University of Southern California and the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner, was one of history's most heralded rookies when the Buffalo Bills selected him with the first overall pick in the 1969 draft.

His career record for 11 seasons confirms the rave notices were well founded. He rushed for 11,236 yards and scored 456 points on 76 touchdowns in his career.

O.J. may be best remembered for his sensational 1973 season when he became the first back in history to rush for over 2,000 yards. With 219 yards in the next-to-last game against New England and a 200-yard output in the finale with the New York Jets, Simpson totaled 2,003 yards, tops for a 14-game season.

Simpson also led the league in rushing four years: 1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976.

In various selections, he was named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975. He was both All-AFC and All-Pro five straight years from 1972 through 1976. He played in six Pro Bowls, winning Player of the Game honors in the 1973 game.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Won four NFL rushing titles (1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976)
- Became the first back to ever rush for more than 2,000 yards in 1973 with 2003 yards.
- Named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975, and also named to both All-Pro and All-AFC squads from 1972-76.

HISTORY

HOW THE BILLS GOT THEIR NAME

Following the 1946 season, in an effort to generate more fan interest and distinguish the football team from the city's minor league baseball and hockey teams, which also bore the name "Bisons," the team ran a contest to select a new name. Over 4,500 entries were submitted, and "the Bills" won out over "Bullets," "Nickels" and "Blue Devils." Several contestants suggested the winning name, but James F. Dyson was named the winner of the $500 prize based on his essay comparing the team to a band of "Buffalo Bills." He wrote that, while the legendary Indian Scout William "Buffalo Bill" Cody helped trailblaze the American Frontier, the football team (owned by the president of Frontier Oil) was opening a new frontier in Buffalo sports.

BUFFALO BILLS FIELDHOUSE

The Buffalo Bills Fieldhouse redefines the state-of-the-art for indoor practice facilities. Construction of the facility began in March of 1995 and was completed in September of the same year. The 95,000 square-foot construction is 12 stories high and is large enough to duplicate the stadium field, including a new Field Turf surface. The building features a 20-foot wide rubberized track which runs around the field and is 1/5 of a mile in distance. It also houses a Bills' Photo Gallery that is composed of four-foot by six-foot photos of former players who were selected for the Bills Silver Anniversary Team, Pro Bowl, the Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. Distinguished Service Award, or the Wall of Fame.

HOME FIELD HISTORY

- When the Buffalo Bills began play in 1960, their home venue was War Memorial Stadium. Built in 1936, the "Rockpile" was a 36,500-seat facility located in Buffalo at Jefferson and Best streets. In 1965, the open air, natural grass facility was expanded by adding an upper deck to increase capacity to 46,206.
- Years of extreme weather and the popularity of the Bills led to the creation of a larger facility. A 113-acre tract of land approximately 30 minutes from downtown Buffalo was selected and groundbreaking ceremonies were conducted in Orchard Park on April 4, 1972 for the new football complex. To form the lower level of the stadium, more than 370,000 feet of shale were removed – putting the field 50 feet below ground level. Construction was completed in slightly over 14 months and on August 17, 1973, the stadium was officially opened as the Bills played host to the Washington Redskins.
- Since the stadium's original construction, the facility has seen many changes. In 1984, the stadium's capacity was increased to 80,290 with the addition of 16 executive suites on the top floor of the administration building. Eight years later, 24 more suites were constructed in the west end zone and shared restrooms were added to the original suites. The Red Zone and Goal Line indoor clubs were added in 1994, offering fans a comfortable atmosphere as each of the two blocks of 500 seats are enclosed in glass. Also in 1994, 14 new suites were added, bringing the grand total to 88 luxury boxes. The 1994 expansion project also brought the team the largest JumboTron in the United States. This mammoth videoboard measured 31.5 feet high by 41.5 feet wide. Some of the capabilities of the videoboard include full-color instant replays, live action shots, crowd shots, out-of-town highlights, animations and various in-stadium shots from cameras exclusive to videoboard usage. In addition, a black and white Daktronics Scoreboard matrix system designed to complement the Sony JumboTron was installed.
- In 1999 crews completed a seven-month stadium overhaul that included constructing 76 brand-new dugout suites and two new enclosed club sections each containing 500 seats. Fans in the dugout suites watch the action just 40 rows from the field. In addition, the Bills replaced 6,800 seats in the sideline club sections with revolutionary contoured heated seats, the first of their kind in North America. Renovations also included four new restroom towers, upgraded stadium lighting and a state-of-the-art sound system.
- In 2007, the Bills introduced a new Mitsubishi high definition LED video display scoreboard measuring 33.5 feet by 82.8 feet. The accompanied new HD Digital Screen Controller will allow for simultaneous display of up to three multiple images (or one full screen image). This installation was only the second true high definition display in the NFL, largely as a result of the integral HD Processor used to produce the necessary lines of resolution (1080), to accurately depict an HD image. In addition, the Bills installed over 1,000 feet of Mitsubishi Diamond Vision LED Ribbon Boards on the fascia of the bowl seating areas. The traditional scoring system is encompassed within this state-of-the-art display along with dynamic sponsor ads, player/team statistics and fan prompts.

BILLS TORONTO SERIES

Last season the Buffalo Bills became the first NFL team to host a regular season game on Canadian soil when they faced AFC East rival the Miami Dolphins on December 7, 2008. The Bills Toronto Series continues this year with its third installment when the Bills play the New York Jets on December 3, 2009 at Rogers Centre in Toronto.

The series is an effort to further regionalize the Bills franchise and will bring a total of eight games over a five-year period to Toronto. The series began with a preseason game against the Pittsburgh Steelers on Thursday, August 14, 2008.

The series includes a regular season game each year (2008-2012) and preseason games in 2008, 2010 and 2012.

"We are very pleased to be the first franchise in NFL history to split our schedule between our domestic home city of Buffalo, New York and our neighboring international city, Toronto, Ontario," Bills owner Ralph Wilson commented last year. "The population growth in Toronto, the passion the Canadian fans have shown for the Buffalo Bills and the vision of Ted Rogers and Larry Tanenbaum have made this possible."

Phil Lind, Vice Chairman of Rogers Communications Inc. added, "This is like a dream come true. Playing a season's worth of games in the Rogers Centre will make for incredibly exciting football. Canadians love NFL football and this series will let Canadians see the games live in Toronto."

The Bills have set the standard around the league for the regionalization of their franchise, dating back to the relocation of training camp to Rochester, New York and continuing through this announcement.

ROGERS CENTRE FACTS AND FIGURES

The roof system features a series of three moveable panels and one stationary panel which takes 20 minutes to open or close fully. The roof weighs 11,000 tons and covers an area of 339,343 square feet. The highest point stands 282 feet above field level.
